WHAT TEACHERS AND LEARNERS SAY ABOUT CRIMINOLOGY

“The Eduqas Criminology course is not just a rehash or overlap with Law, Sociology or Psychology - it is a unique qualification which looks at a very topical area from a different perspective and develops both the academic knowledge and practical skills that prepare our learners for higher education and employment in law, criminal justice and other related careers as well as developing wider and flexible skills with wide application.”

Dr Matt Lamb

Principal

Central Saint Michael's Sixth Form

“I feel that completing the level 3 Criminology has shaped my career path in many ways. It provided me with a good foundation to build upon throughout my degree, something that a lot of my fellow students did not have.

I now work for a charity supporting victims of domestic abuse (DA), a career which I am not sure I would have entered had I not completed the criminology course.”
