Dear Sir/Madam

For the attention of Heads of Centres entering candidates for GCSE Drama

WJEC EDUQAS GCSE DRAMA (C690QS) – Component 3: Interpreting Theatre

Dear Sir/Madam

The following information relates to the Component 3: Interpreting Theatre written examination and in particular for centres studying DNA Dennis Kelly as their set text within Section A of this paper.

We noted in our December 2021 circular (Circular No. 052), that we had become aware that the publishing company had released a new and updated student version of this text. The Oberon Schools' Edition (ISBN 978-1-84002-952-9) which is noted within our specification as being the edition that centres should use for the examination is no longer available and has been replaced by a new Methuen Drama Student edition (ISBN: 978-1-35018-804-4).

In order to avoid any confusion within the examination, the question paper will continue to reference page numbers from the original Oberon Schools' Edition as noted within the specification. However, we will be issuing an advisory notice to centres within our May despatch. The advisory notice will contain the relevant page references for the new Methuen Drama Student edition. Centres using this new edition will be able to notify candidates prior to the examination of the required adjustment to the page references in the examination paper.

If you have any further questions regarding any of these arrangements, please contact drama@eduqas.co.uk.

Yours faithfully

ELAINE CARLILE
