DEVISING THEATRE
SAMPLE ASSESSMENT MATERIALS
Stimulus materials for assessment in xxxx

INFORMATION AND ADVICE FOR CANDIDATES

You must choose one skill from the following list on which to be assessed:

- performing
- lighting design
- sound design
- set design (including props)
- costume and make-up design.

You must work in a group of between 2 and 5 performing candidates. Each group may also have up to 4 additional design candidates, each offering a different design skill from the list above.

The timings of the piece are based on the number of actors in the group and should be as follows:

Group of two actors:	5-10 minutes
Group of three actors:	7-12 minutes
Group of four actors:	9-14 minutes
Group of five actors:	11-16 minutes.

You must devise and realise a piece of theatre based on a stimulus following the instructions on the next two pages.

After the performance or design has been assessed by your teacher, you are not permitted to add to or amend the piece of theatre.

1. Devising

Choose one stimulus from the list below and devise a piece of theatre using the stimulus as a starting point. You must incorporate either the techniques of a theatre practitioner or the characteristics of a specific genre. You are advised to use between 4 and 6 clear techniques or characteristics in the piece.

Stimulus materials

- (a) 'All men are created equal' American Declaration of Independence
- (b) Handbags and Gladrags by Stereophonics
- (c) Parsifal I, Anselm Kiefer
<http://www.tate.org.uk/art/artworks/kiefer-parsifal-i-t03403>
- (d) The Closed Door

You must compile a portfolio of supporting evidence. This portfolio must show details of how the piece has been created and developed to communicate meaning to an audience. You must focus on three significant stages in the development of your piece of theatre to demonstrate:

1. how ideas have been researched, created and developed in response to the chosen stimulus
2. how ideas from the chosen practitioner/genre have been incorporated in the piece to communicate meaning
3. how the ideas have been developed, amended and refined during the development of the devised piece.

For each stage, you must provide illustrative material (as listed below) and a commentary, which may include annotations on the illustrative material. The commentary for each stage should be approximately 250 words and total 750 to 900 words for the complete portfolio.

You may also produce your portfolio as a suitably edited blog (between 750 and 900 words), as an audio-visual recording, including the illustrative material, or an audio commentary on the illustrative material. Audio and audio-visual portfolios should be between six and nine minutes.

Illustrative material may include any of the following:

- sketches
- photographs
- ground plans
- diagrams
- storyboards
- mood boards
- sections of script
- digital media, including brief recordings of sections of performance in process or material appropriate to the skill area, e.g., sound clips. These should be no longer than one minute.

The portfolio is intended to highlight the creative and developmental process of devising a piece of theatre. It is not intended to be a full record of the rehearsal period, and you should therefore choose carefully the evidence which best supports the three significant stages of development of your piece of theatre.

2. Realisation

You must realise your piece of theatre. Performing candidates must interact with other performers and/or the audience for a minimum of five minutes.

Design candidates must realise the design fully in performance. As it is the design itself which is assessed, the technical equipment may be operated by someone else.

3. Evaluation

You must evaluate the final performance or design. Your evaluation will be written under supervised conditions. You will have 1 hour 30 minutes to complete it. You should start with a brief statement of your chosen stimulus and chosen practitioner or genre. You must then complete the following three main sections:

1. an analysis and evaluation of your interpretation of character/role or your realisation of design in the final performance
2. an analysis and evaluation of how either your own performance skills (i.e. voice, movement, interaction) or your own design skills (i.e. sound, lighting, set or costume) contributed to the effectiveness of the final performance
3. an analysis and evaluation of your individual contribution to the final performance.

You may have access to two sides of A4 in bullet point notes when writing your evaluation. These notes must be handed in with the evaluation.

COMPONENT 1: Devising Theatre – Assessment grid for performing candidates (Performance and supporting evidence)

- The appropriate band for each assessment objective should be established by determining which performance descriptor best reflects the candidate's performance
- The appropriate mark should then be established by determining the extent to which the candidate has met the criteria within the relevant band – completely met (upper part of band), adequately met (middle of band), just met (lower part of band)
- The total marks for each column may reflect performance at different bands across the assessment objectives. For example, a candidate may achieve band 4 for AO1 and band 5 for AO2
- It should be noted that the bands have been designed to assist the marking process by identifying individual levels of achievement and they do not correlate with grade boundaries.

GCSE DRAMA
INTERPRETING THEATRE
MARK SCHEME

GENERAL INFORMATION

Marking should be positive, rewarding achievement rather than penalising failure or omissions. The awarding of marks must be directly related to the marking criteria. Examiners should use the generic assessment grid, where applicable, the indicative content for each text/question and the marking guidance when assessing a candidate's response.

For questions that are points based, the mark scheme should be applied precisely. Marks should be awarded as indicated and no further sub-division made.

For banded mark schemes, the assessment grid should be considered in conjunction with the indicative content.

Band Descriptors

When awarding a mark, examiners should select the band that most closely describes the quality of the work being assessed.

- Where the candidate's work convincingly meets the descriptors, the highest mark should be awarded.
- Where the candidate's work adequately meets the descriptors, the most appropriate mark in the middle range should be awarded.
- Where the candidate's work just meets the descriptors, the lowest mark should be awarded.

Examiners should use the full range of marks available to them and award full marks for work that convincingly meets the descriptors in that band.

Indicative Content

The mark scheme instructs examiners to reward valid alternatives where indicative content is suggested for an answer. Indicative content outlines some areas of the text/question candidates may explore in their responses. This is not a checklist for expected content or a 'model answer'. Where a candidate provides a response that contains aspects or approaches not included in the indicative content, examiners should use their professional judgement as drama specialists to determine the validity of the response/interpretation in light of the text and/or the question asked. All questions provide opportunities for candidates to make informed, independent responses, and such opportunities need to be upheld in the marking. Valid alternatives should be rewarded where deemed appropriate, in line with the skills outlined in the banded levels of response in the generic assessment grids.
